

APPEAL FOR HELP

Ladies and gentlemen, we are asking you to URGENTLY help and save one human life by engaging your diplomatic representatives in the Republic of Serbia, the Government and the presidents of the countries you represent, and that is the life of a long-time journalist and the owner of the very popular tabloid newspaper in Serbia, which deals with the fight against the crime and corruption of Milovan Brkić.

Milovan Brkić is an honorable and honest man and journalist, one of a number of journalists who are going through the dictatorship of the system in Serbia and that only because of a publicly spoken word that is guaranteed to every citizen of Serbia by the Constitution and international conventions for the protection of human rights.

Because of the publicly spoken criticism addressed to the President of Serbia, Aleksandar Vučić, and his associates, Milovan Brkić has been in prison for 60 days in an extremely poor state of health, while Vučić and all the citizens of Serbia know that Brkić has neither the physical nor any other capabilities nor the capacity to threaten anyone. life and not the Constitutional order of the Republic of Serbia.

Due to his poor state of health, sick and exhausted, every day of his stay in the prison cell for Brkić could be his last and with a fatal outcome, so we ask and appeal to you to act URGENTLY and through diplomatic and other connections to achieve his immediate and immediate release from prison with the possibility of the trial continues from liberty.
